CITY OF PHILADELPHIA

DATE: 3/30/21

TO : Deputy Commissioner, Patrol OperationsFROM : Commanding Officer, 22nd DistrictSUBJECT : 22ND DISTRICT QUALITY OF LIFE CONCERNS

1. The 22nd District has a few areas for improvement regarding Quality of Life concerns. They are listed below.

Ridge Avenue/Cecil B Moore Avenue

This is large intersection with several take-out establishments and alcohol vendors. The nearby grassy area is a perfect spot for people to gather, eat, and drink their recently bought items. Trash can pile up, including empty cans.

1600 Susquehanna Avenue

With a deli on the corner that sells alcohol, this block has become a gathering spot for large crowds on nice days. There is a park on one side of the street. This is where most of the crowd gathers. Trash can pile up, including empty cans.

1600 Cumberland Street

The park on this block attracts gambling. Neighbors have also complained about the heavy amount of drinking. Trash can pile up, including empty cans.

Stanley Street/Cumberland Street

The park on this corner attracts a crowd of locals, usually drinking and playing loud music. Trash can pile up, including empty cans.

Germantown Avenue/ Huntingdon Street

The park on this corner attracts a crowd of locals, usually drinking and playing loud music. Trash can pile up, including empty cans.

25th Street/Seybert Street

There are a couple of gambling locations in this area. Complaints of gambling were frequent. Loud music is also usually the subject of complaints.

1800 Susquehanna Ave

There is a speakeasy at 1815 Susquehanna Avenue which attracts a lot of foot traffic. Violent crime has be noted in the area. Trash can pile up.

1700 31st Street

There is a speakeasy at 1735 N 31st Street which attracts a lot of foot traffic. Violent crime has be noted in the area. Trash can pile up.

2100 Dover Street

There is a speakeasy at 2137 N Dover Street which attracts a lot of foot traffic. Violent crime has be noted in the area. Trash can pile up.

2. If you have any questions regarding the above listed conditions, let me know.
